FROM THE DESK OF FR. PAUL

THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD – DECEMBER 25, 2016

ISAIAH 9:1-6; TITUS 2:11-14; LUKE 2:1-14

HOPE AND LIGHT FOR US AND RIGHT BEFORE US

Tonight we celebrate the wonderful feast of the Incarnation, God taking flesh and becoming one like us and one of us. The reason for our inexplicable joy is the fact that the All Powerful and Merciful God, who created us in his own image and likeness, has reached out to us in love and has become one like us in all things but sin. This unique and unparalleled moment of God ushers in light and hope into our lives dispelling darkness and despair from our lives. The prophecy of Isaiah captures that unique experience in the history of the people of Israel: “The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom, a light has shone.” The evangelist John in his prologue echoes the same truth when he talks about the Word, the Logos, taking flesh. He speaks of the Word as “the light of the human race.” This Light, John continues, “shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it” (John 1:5). We are also in an extraordinary moment of our parish’s history, the 100th year of this community’s faith journey. Would it not be fitting to ask ourselves at this historic moment why is it difficult for us to experience light and hope?

Our guilt, shame, apprehensions, doubts, and feelings, sense of inadequacy and even unworthiness contribute to the fear of light and reluctance to hold on to our hope. While we are to be aware of what we experience, we are also called to take heart tonight the very message that we hear from the angel to the shepherds in the gospel: “Do not be afraid.” The reason why we are called not to be afraid is that a Savior has been born for us. What is so special in this event? In this new-born child in Bethlehem, God made us to see and experience the sheer tenderness of his love and compassion which he offers unconditionally to all. In this event the mystery of God was revealed to us in an unprecedented way. The length, breadth, depth and height of God’s love is expressed in an unmatched way in the baby born for us today. God finally chose to visit his people - not through dreams and words of the prophets but in human flesh and blood.

The challenge for each one of us tonight is how we venture into our future unafraid and undaunted. The answer is in the very choice of God himself. It was a powerless and weak human child that became the visible expression of the very mystery of God and his love. Our simple and ordinary acts by which we become lights can bring hope to a world which at times seems to grow so dark with selfishness and sin. He calls us to continue his work of bringing a little of his light into the darkness in which we live. We don’t need to be anxious or afraid. The light of God’s love and compassion is always brighter, stronger and more enduring. That is the good news we celebrate tonight.

Fr. Paul.

2017 PRAYER—A—THON

WHEN? Tuesday, January 17, 2017

Our Prayer-A-Thon will begin with Mass at 7:30 am and will close with a Prayer Service with Benediction at 4:30 pm. After the morning Mass, exposition of the Eucharist will be displayed in a monstrance on the altar. The church will be open throughout the day for all members of this faith community to unite in prayer.

WHY? There is great power in prayer

Prayer makes a difference. Circumstances change. Strength and guidance is given, hearts are opened and needs are met. The power of prayer can never be overestimated.

January days present us with many challenges. Prayer gives us an opportunity to share all aspects of our lives with God. Prayer gives us the opportunity to express our gratitude for blessings. Prayer is the key that unlocks God's infinite grace and power.

The more we pray, the less anxious we become. The more we pray we are filled with a greater peace of mind and heart. The more we pray the more we come to understand ourselves. The more we pray we begin to see the hand of God in our daily lives. Please make plans to unite with this community in prayer!

Do you have a special prayer intention or a person you would like us to pray for? Please put your prayer intention in the basket in the back of the church or the school office by Jan. 15 and your intention will be read at our closing Prayer Service. God Bless!

Answer: In Chartres, France, a city known for exquisite stained glass windows since the 12th century. Its Cathedral is a World Heritage Site. Our windows were designed and fabricated by Gabriel Loire of Chartres, whose internationally known stained glass windows grace the Salisbury Cathedral in England and Grace Cathedral in San Francisco.

THANK YOU! To World Cup Coffee and our Parishioners, Dan Welch and Family for providing the wonderful coffee we enjoy each week after the 8 and 10:30 masses. We are so grateful!
