God of everlasting mercy, who in the very recurrence of the paschal feast kindle the faith of the people you have made your own, increase, we pray, the grace you have bestowed, that all may grasp and rightly understand in what font they have been washed, by whose Spirit they have been reborn, by whose Blood they have been redeemed. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen

REFLECTION FOR THE WEEK

CYCLE A APRIL 23, 2017

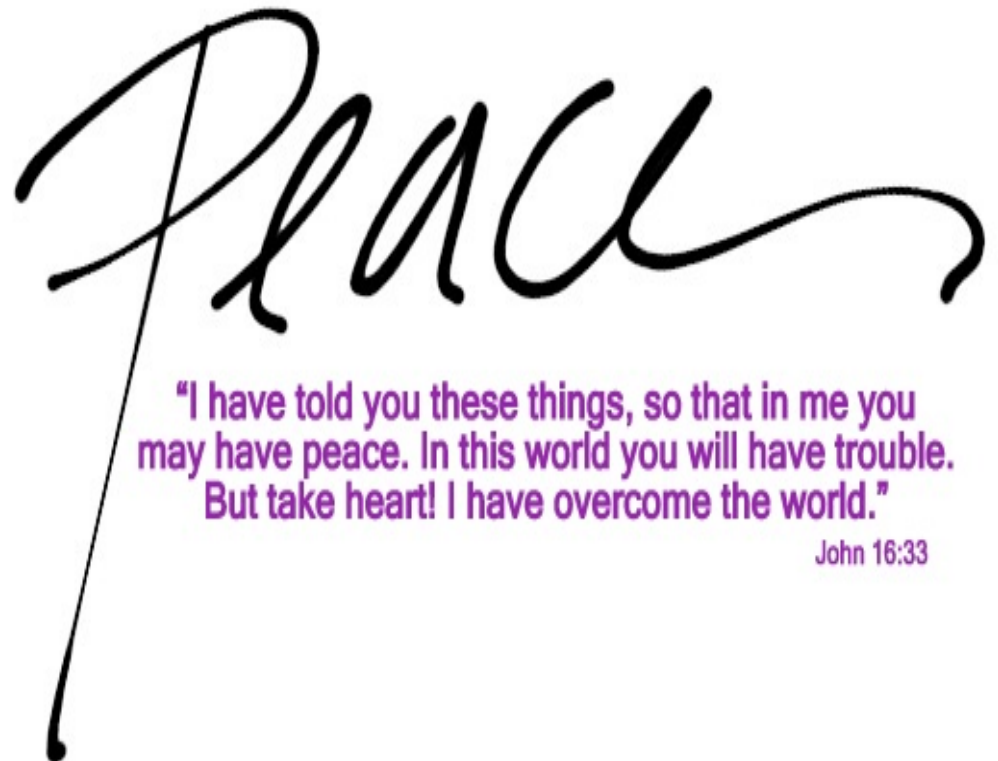

2nd Sunday of Easter; Sunday of Divine Mercy

"Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" Three times in today's Gospel, Jesus speaks these words to his disciples. He knew they were in need of peace! Following the Crucifixion, they had huddled in fear, hiding behind locked doors, "for fear of the Jews." But the risen Christ burst into this prison of anxiety to set the disciples free.

We may wonder why, after his first greeting of peace, Jesus immediately showed the disciples the wounds of his crucifixion, still present in his now glorified body. Why would he speak of peace and then show them the scars from the violence of the cross? Perhaps it is because those wounds earned our forgiveness. And this forgiveness is our peace.

Although we may not suffer from the fear of martyrdom as these first disciples did, we all need the peace that comes from being forgiven, and from forgiving. Our sins enslave us by preventing us from experiencing the fullness of life. But Jesus' mercy is greater than our sins. He wants to forgive us. And, as he taught us, we are supposed to "forgive those who trespass against us" as well. Perhaps we harbor grudges towards neighbors or family members who have hurt us. We are called to extend forgiveness to them, just as Christ extends forgiveness to us. In this way, we can cooperate with Christ by spreading peace to others. "As the Father has sent me, so I send you," he told the disciples gathered in the room. We too are sent to be messengers of Christ's peace and mercy.

Especially today, on this Sunday of Divine Mercy, may we accept from Jesus his promise of forgiveness. Then, we will truly be able to "go in peace."

"I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

All Saints 100th Anniversary

What Do You Know, All Saints?

Expand your knowledge of All Saints Parish and School with history and questions drawn from the past 100 years. Enjoy and celebrate All Saints!

An all Saints First: The "Backwards Mass"

One day in 1942 Father Thomas Tobin did an unusual thing: he offered a Mass backwards. It wasn't really backwards, either—he just turned around and said the Mass facing the congregation. And people noticed. In fact, there was something of a furor and there were some dissenters.

Liturgical leader Tobin dismissed complaints with a sound explanation. "It is a return to the beginnings of the Church. The first Masses were celebrated with the priest's face toward the people."

All Saints turned out to be a leader of the Universal Church in this regard; within 25 years, practically all Catholic Masses were being said with the priest facing the people.
