In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!"

FROM THE DESK OF FR. PAUL

Dear parishioners,

Each year I look forward to the last week of January, when we observe National Catholic Schools Week. As a parish, we recognize the value of Catholic education and support our families and school in educating our young people so they can reach their full potential. We acknowledge the vital role of the school faculty, staff and volunteers in this effort. And we celebrate our students as they learn about their faith and the skills they need in the 21st century.

The week's theme, "Catholic Schools: Learn, Serve, Lead, Succeed." focuses on the core of Catholic education. Schools are not only communities themselves; they are also part of larger communities. As a parish, we support our school through prayer and resources, and the school, in turn, collaborates with families to develop our children into future model leaders and citizens. The theme also highlights key elements of Catholic education: academic excellence, leadership and dedication to service. Our Catholic schools are part of our future as a Church and a nation. May God bless them and all who contribute to the important work they do on behalf of the children of our parish and parishes across the country.

Devotedly yours in Christ,
Father Paul Jeyamani

All Saints' Carnival Fair—Preparing the way to Lent

Sponsored by WiFA

Please mark your calendars for the Carnival Fair on Sunday, Feb 4 after the 10:30 Mass. Like our Advent Fair, Carnival Fair will have fun activities for children and food and drink for everyone with opportunities for us to prepare the way toward Lent. We will have Carnival booths for children to win prizes, including a cake walk, and information tables with activities for Lenten Faith Formation for both children and adults. Volunteers will also be preparing and serving up Mardi Gras style food like jumbalaya. This is also a great opportunity to earn Fair Share hours; contact Megan Palinsky in the parish office for a link to the sign up genius or check the parish FB group to sign up.

Guest Speaker: Carol J. Dempsey, OP

Our February guest speaker, is a professor of Biblical Studies at the University of Portland and a well established author. Her books provide an informative and insightful look at the prophets and how their lives and their words related to their times as well as to our times. Her message from the principal characters of the scriptures is that relationship with God moves us from pathos to trust, from imprisonment to freedom and from desperation to conviction. From her message we will hear how relationship with God is meant for us.

Women are invited to attend this special presentation. We meet monthly on the first Saturday of each month from October through May to enjoy fellowship, refreshments and gifted speakers. SCHOOL NEWS

Please join us for a special Mass on Sunday, January 28th hosted by the kindergarten and eighth grade to celebrate National Catholic Schools Week, our annual celebration of what makes education at All Saints outstanding.

The theme of our celebration is “Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed.” The theme encompasses the core products and values that can be found in Catholic schools. Teaching students to become future servant leaders, faith-filled disciples and enriched citizens in our communities. As educators we are growing with them. In Catholic schools, we are all learners, servants and leaders. These shared qualities are what make Catholic schools work. They are what make Catholic schools succeed.

The theme also focuses on key elements of Catholic education: faith development, academic excellence and dedication to service. These elements set Catholic schools apart from other educational options. They are why families make sacrifices to provide their children with a Catholic education.

As we prepare to celebrate National Catholic Schools Week, I want to thank you for all you do to help our school. I am grateful for your prayers and contributions, and appreciate the time and talent you so generously share through your volunteer efforts.

Kimberly Fadden
Director of Religion

Accreditation is a process of ongoing school improvement. Our ultimate goal is to provide our students with educational opportunities that will guide each student toward the pathway to high achievement. We always want to be on the road to improvement.

As we welcome in 2018, our journey toward re-accreditation continues. Committees have been working diligently on various aspects of the “Improving Student Learning Self Study Process.” Our committees are using the school, parent and student surveys to recognize our strengths and identify needed areas of academic growth.

A primary focus of this process is the assessment of our Catholic identity as a school and how effective we are at infusing our Catholic identity into our entire curriculum and school culture. Catholic identity is defined as “the distinctive religious dimension found in Catholic schools which emphasizes message, community service and worship centered in Eucharist as found in the Catholic tradition.”

Our committees meet regularly, and through this discernment process and introspective review will provide the foundation for the forthcoming self study.
